

Announcing The Small Developers Collective
-The Voice of the Small Real Estate Investor

You are Invited to our Kick-Off Happy Hour!

Wednesday June, 7

5:00pm – 7:00pm

Mex Power Plant Live (www.MexBaltimore.com)

Did you know that in fiscal year 2016 Small Developers invested at least $60,000,000 in our city! Individually we may be small, but together we are a major driving force in the revitalization of Baltimore!

The Small Developers Collective is a non-profit trade organization created to provide a collective voice to individual developers and to highlight the vast accomplishments of the many residential investors in our area.

As we shine a light on the issues that confront our members, we can reduce the frustration of doing business by ensuring that policy makers, elected officials and other stakeholders understand the profound impact their decisions have on our members and on our neighborhoods.

Come - learn more about The Small Developers Collective

Network - enjoy some free food and/or buy a colleague a beer

Ask Questions – meet policy makers and other investors
